

Intervention en anglais de Katharina Bürki auprès des élèves de 1^{ère} GEN4 et 1^{ère} STMG2 pour nous faire découvrir les Indiens d'Amérique d'hier et d'aujourd'hui ! Un grand merci pour cet échange très instructif.

Voici un petit résumé des élèves...

« Meet, talk and don't forget! »

Last Thursday 12th December 2019, Katharina Bürki came to present us the Lakotas people.

They live in South Dakota, in the middle of the USA. Unfortunately, they are badly-considered and even discriminated: in the past Natives were killed by the Whites (massacre of Wounded Knee - 1890), they used to live in harmony with nature but now they live in reservations, in hard conditions. Yet, since 1990 with the Chief Big Foot Band Memorial Ride, hundreds of young Native Americans celebrate the memory of their own pride because either Black people, White people, or Indian people, ... we are just people! We learnt many things thanks to the visit of Katharina and will remember the stories we have heard for a long time!
